

Approval of broadband communications via PLC makes no sense. The RFI generated will effectively wipe out the majority of amature communications. No big deal you say. Those "amatures" don't contribute to the public good and certianly don't generate any income for the FCC.

Next time there is a disaster, natural or man made, who will you call to replace those amatures that quite because the could not enjoy their hobby?

Please do not allow this to happen.